BALTIMORE, Md., July 12.- In a somewhat remarkable slugging game the Sevators beat the Orioles today by a score of 14 to 12. It was a bad day for the twirlers, and the gentlemen who officiated in the box were pounded impartially. Washington secured seventeen base hits with a total of thirty bases, while Baltimore annexed fourteen with a total of twenty-

Nops started out to pitch for Baltimore, but received his quietus in the fourth inning, when two singles and three home runs were bunched on him, giving the Senators five runs. Three home runs in one inning is believed to be the record, Howell went into the box in the fifth inning, and he too received his bumps. A triple, a double, and two singles were bunched on him in the seventh. It was a day when all twirlers looked alike to Patten started out in the box for Washington, but he was driven to the tall timber in the sixth inning; then Gear went in to save the day. Gear was thomped hard for the rest of the game, two home runs being bunched on him in the eighth inning, but he was enabled to pull out a victory, inasmuch as the other fellow was getting thumped just as hard. The fielding on both sides was rather rocky, but Baltimore's errors proved to be the more costly. Washington started off with a rush, getting three runs in the first inning. Two bases on balls and two wild throws by Nops, with a timely double by Grady did the business. The Orioles, however, in their half of the inning went the Senators one better, and scored four runs. An error by Keister gave Washington one run in the second, and tied the score. Baltimore scored one in the third, and took the lead.

In the fourth the deluge came. After Patten and Waldron had been retired, Farrell hit to centre for a home run. Dungan followed with a single and then house for another home run. Foster sin- at all times. The score: gled and then Grady drove out the third home run of the inning. There was much excitement in the eighth, when the Orioles, with two home runs, came within one of tieing the score.

In the second inning, in a collision with Waldron at third, McGraw was badly hurt. He kept on playing, however, and taking his turn at the bat in the fast half of the second lined out a two-hagger to the right field. As he turned to run, he twisted his knee and fell in his tracks. He was carried off the field and it wan found that his knee cap was out of place. It is probable that he will be out of the game for some time. Manager Manning today released Foster and Mercer. The Today's match was very fast from the turt Both players seemed at their best, but the Brooklynne was playing a little off in the first two sets. He finally pull ed himself together, and took the third and fourth sets, the score being two sets all. The fifth set was a battle of supremacy, both players being well warmed up. It was anyone's game up to the last stroke, but Davidson by a lucky play polished off the score of the ninth game and thus won the set by 11-9, and the match.

Fisher will not be on hand tomorrow to iefend the cup, so the Tuxedo challenge cup goes to Davidson by default. J. P. Paret, formerly Jersey champion, played an exciting match today in the handicap singles against Alexander Armstrong, of New York. This was a very fast game, Paret finally winning by his good form. The consolation prize, a beautiful cup, was won by Dr. Glazebrook, the Washington expert. Glazebrook and Shepard, of Tuxedo, were the two pitted for this event, but Shepard being a young player fell an easy mark to

THREE LOSSES OF PROPERTY.

Money, Shoes, and a Watch Are

Mourned for by Erstwhile Owners. Of the robberies reported last night, ne on a prominent business street seems have surprised the police quite a little. William E. Henderson, whose home is at Courteenth and Galveston Streets northvest, asserts that he was robbed at Seventh and H Streets northwest shortly before 8 o'clock, while many people were walking about, and while a policeman was patrolling his beat not far distant. It appears that Henderson lost only a pair of shoes, valued at less than $5, but First race-For two-year-old maidens; he is greatly surprised at the audacity of the thief. According to his story, he was standing at the corner mentioned when a negro, apparently twenty years old, came along and jostled him from behind. As he turned about to see what was the trouble, the negro grabbled a pair of shoes from under the arm of Henderson. The latter called lustily to catch the thief, and the negro took to his heels. The policeman, men, women, and boys joined in the chase after the fleeing negro, who ran into Bates Alley, nearby, and disappeared, cluding all further pursuit Unknown parties made an
